Shareholders will be pleased to note that the "Value Created" has recorded a Compounded Annual Growth rate (CAGR) of 20.46% vis-à-vis the BSE 200 CAGR of 16.69 % for the 15 year period 31st March, 2002 to 31st March, 2017. It is heartening that this performance has been achieved while the management has endeavoured to reduce the risk to the portfolio with a prudent allocation to unlisted equity and fixed income securities. The Company has consistently declared dividend which over the last 15 years has aggregated ₹ 1,044 crores. Thus, if the value of dividend distributed were to be added to Value Created, the multiplier and returns of the portfolio would stand enhanced to the extent the value was distributed to the shareholders.

Global Events, Markets and Risks

The year 2016 was undoubtedly a year of momentous referendums. In perhaps the worlds’ most mature democracies, namely UK and USA, the electorate surprised the world with their vote for Brexit and for President Trump respectively. Both referendums have given mandates which may change the contours of global trade relations in the developed world in the years to come. Mr. Trump in the first few days of his Presidency, vide an executive order, revoked US’s participation in the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) deal, which had taken more than seven years to negotiate, and was considered the largest regional trade deal in history and a cornerstone of the Obama administration. Mr. Trump promises a tougher line with China. In all, the odds are that President Trump’s foreign policy decisions will dominate the news in 2017 and possibly redefine America’s relations with the world.

North Korea continues to forge ahead with acts of aggression. In January 2016, it conducted its fourth nuclear test since 2006, and followed that up with a series of ballistic missile tests. Then on September 9, 2016 it conducted its fifth nuclear test, producing an explosive yield of 10 kilotons, the highest recorded so far. North Korea can already strike Japan and South Korea. It perhaps now commands the highest rating in any statement of geopolitical risk.

While the news media analysed these events with trepidation and analysts flagged the risks and uncertainties, the S&P 500 appreciated 9.5% for the calendar year followed by a further 5.5% since the quarter ended 31st March, 2017. The bull market in the US is now eight years in build up after the crash during the financial crisis of 2009. The erstwhile peak of the S&P 500 in 2007 of 1526 was quietly breached on Jan 1, 2013 and has since then, besides a short correction during a few months in 2015, had a relentless upward march, clocking a new peak at 2399 by 8th May, 2017.

The US seems to be the driver of global equity markets. Undoubtedly, the world’s largest basket of wealth is managed in the US and therefore allocations are driven by the views of Fund Managers in the US. A vibrant US market motivates fund managers to allocate larger funds to other markets in search of new opportunities and as a means of diversification. Equity investors look for growth and global market capitalisation has grown with substantial growth in GDP.

The following illustration shows how the gradient of Global GDP growth has become steeper since the beginning of the 21st century and has remained so for the last few years. This is remarkable given that universally all economies faced the shock of the global financial crisis in the first decade of the century itself, and thereafter had to revive in the aftermath of economic and financial uncertainty. Strange as it may be the world GDP has continued to grow admirably, in the last decade even after the financial crisis, while economists and central bankers have remained perturbed with what they consider low rates of growth.

Going forward, perhaps the biggest risk to equity markets are the extended valuations in the US markets. The S&P 500 EPS over the last decade has remained in a narrow band of 85 -110 whereas the value of the S&P has appreciated significantly, especially in the last five years. The S&P EPS has fallen in the last three years as is seen in the following illustration. Further, since 2010, US companies have borrowed funds to do share buybacks which, according to some research reports, aggregated $3.25 trillion for the S&P 500 companies and net of issuances, has reduced the number of shares issued by about 9.3%. Thus, in essence, if the number of shares had remained the same, the EPS would be lower by about 11%, reflecting a higher degrowth in this period of rampant exuberance.

In contrast, in India the appreciation in the BSE 200 over the last decade has largely been supported by consistent growth in earnings, albeit the growth has been lower in the last few years. Macro economic parameters in India have also seen a sharp improvement in the last three years with current account deficit, fiscal deficits and inflation falling sharply.

The government embarked upon the most courageous reform measure of Demonetization in Nov, 2016. The people of India, especially the poor and those in the rural areas showed incredible patience and forbearance. In the six months, post December 2016, the system has come back to normal leaving a bonus in the hands of banks in the form of additional CASA. Lower withdrawals of funds as compared to the funds deposited, aggregating a few hundred thousand cores, has left substantial liquidity with banks. Demonetization was the government's Trishul against corruption, which may or may not succeed, but it definitely has changed the people's mindset to the use of alternate means of transacting.

India today has perhaps the largest "digital network access" in the world. 910 million Aadhar holders can beam money to each other using various Apps. In December 30th 2016, India launched BHIM (Bharat Interface for Money) which is a digital payments platform using UPI (Unified Payments Interface). Now payments can be made from UPI accounts to non-UPI accounts and people can use QR codes for instant payments. Habits may take a few years to change but the system using QR code is simple and ingenious. Payments can now also be made using mobile phones, just using fingerprints and an Aadhaar number.

The Indian consumer over time will find using these platforms far easier than cash. Imagine a domestic employee in Mumbai whose family lives in a far away village can now send his salary to his wife using his mobile, with a touch of a button. She can use these funds to buy vegetables, pay children school fees, etc. In some countries like Africa, mobile wallets exceed the number of bank accounts and number of mobile transactions exceed the number of inter-bank transactions. Every year the growth in volume and value of such transactions may perhaps increase the multiplier effect of money.

Electronic banking systems will allow the poor to store and protect money digitally. Mr. Bill Gates in his 2015 annual letter said that “by 2030, 2 billion people who don’t have a bank account today will be storing money and making payment with their phones.” A billion Indians may be included in this count.

GST is now a reality, it will be implemented from July 1, 2017. GST may cause disruption in the first few months. Manufacturers and traders most likely will face a grueling period of reorientation in their working capital requirements and inventory management. It seems enterprises and individuals have reconciled to the fact that for sometime capital requirements will be substantially higher given that GST credits may be delayed within the system. Going forward the system will reduce distribution and warehousing costs for large manufacturers. It is not clear how traders and retailers will benefit. Tax collection from the system should be higher as a percentage of GDP.

Global allocations of funds both for FII/FDI is selective and flow into markets where there is an interesting story to invest in. In the last three years, India has been an interesting story. Foreign investors have recognized that the present government’s vision and endeavours are giving shape to a base which promises India to become a destination for consistent and attractive returns on capital invested. Domestic allocations of personal savings towards equities have also increased sharply in the last two years.

Net FII Inflows	110,243	-4,882	58,326
Net MF Inflows	70,367	74,024	71,029

FDI Inflows	189,107	262,321	291,696
Total Equity Flows	369,717	331,463	421,051

To summarize the Indian economy and markets are standing on stronger and exciting fundamentals. Equities have already begun to discount the prospects of higher growth in earnings with the BSE 200 appreciating 23% during the fiscal year ended March 2017. Having made these observations, your Company continues to incrementally invest in companies which enjoy the benefits from India’s growing market, be it Auto, FMCG, Defence, Banking and Housing Finance. We will continue to look for opportunities both in the listed and unlisted space.

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of TATA INVESTMENT CORPORATION LIMITED ("the Company") as of 31st March, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note.

1. Significant Accounting Policies

1.1 Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (Indian GAAP) to comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, and the applicable guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India ('RBI'). The financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those followed in the previous year.

1.2 Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets and liabilities (including the contingent liabilities) and the reported income and expenses during the reporting period. The Management believes that the estimates used in the preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. The differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialise.

1.3 Fixed Assets, Depreciation and Amortisation

Fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation/amortisation provided on the straight line method. The cost of Fixed assets includes taxes, duties and other incidental expenses incurred in relation to their acquisition/ bringing the assets to their intended use.

Depreciation on following tangible fixed assets has been provided on the straight-line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect of the furniture and fixtures, in which case the life of the assets has been assessed taking into account the nature of the assets, the estimated usage of the asset on the basis of the management best estimation of getting economic benefits from such assets. Further, Assets individually costing ₹ 5000/- or less are fully depreciated in the year of purchase.

	Useful life in years
(a) Buildings	60
(b) Plant and Equipment	15
(c) Furniture and Fixtures	1
(d) Vehicles	8
(e) Office Equipment	5
(f) Leasehold improvements are amortised equitably over the remaining period of the lease. Intangible assets - Software is amortised over its estimated useful life of 4 years on straight line method.

1.4 Revenue recognition

Income from Dividend is accounted when such dividend has been declared and the Company's right to receive payment is established.

Interest income is recognised on a time proportionate basis, taking into account the amount outstanding and the coupon rate applicable. Income from debentures and bonds is accrued over the maturity of the security, net of amortisation of premium/discount, where intended to be held for a long-term, with reference to the coupon dates.

1.5 Employee benefits

- Short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense at the undiscounted amount in the Statement of Profit and Loss of the period in which the related service is rendered.
- Contributions under Defined Contribution Plans i.e. provident fund & superannuation fund are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which the employee has rendered the service.
- Company's liability towards Defined Benefit Plans / Long term compensated absences is determined by an independent actuary using the projected unit credit method. Past service cost is recognised on a straight line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. Actuarial gains and losses are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss as income or expense. Obligation is measured at the present value of estimated future cash flows using a discount rate that is determined by reference to the market yields at the Balance Sheet date on Government Bonds where the currency and terms of the Government Bonds are consistent with the currency and estimated terms of the defined benefit obligation.

1.6 Investments

- Long Term investments are accounted for and valued as per Accounting Standard (AS) 13 - 'Accounting for Investments' are stated at average cost except where there is a diminution other than temporary, for which provision is made.
- Current investments are accounted for and valued as per Accounting Standard (AS) 13 - 'Accounting for Investments' and in accordance with the RBI guidelines, are stated at the lower of cost and fair value, by category of investments.

- (c) The difference between the holding cost and the face value of the Government securities / Bonds / Debentures is written off / up proportionately over the remaining life of the concerned investment or, till the call option date in case of perpetual debentures.
- (d) Inter-class transfer of investments from one category to the other, if any, is done in accordance with the RBI guidelines at the lower of book value and fair value / market value on the date of transfer.

1.7 Taxes on income

Income tax expense comprises current tax and deferred tax charge or credit. The current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of the estimated taxable income for the period. The deferred tax charge or credit is recognised using prevailing enacted or substantively enacted tax rates. Where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence of realisation of such assets. Other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is a reasonable certainty of realisation in future. Deferred tax assets / liabilities are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date, based on developments during the year and available case laws to reassess realisation / liabilities.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company."

1.8 Cash and cash equivalents (for purposes of Cash Flow Statement)

Cash comprises cash on hand and demand deposits with banks. Cash equivalents are short-term balances (with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

1.9 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

1.10 Accounting for provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

In accordance with AS-29, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets, the Company recognises provisions when it has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and when a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made.

Provisions are determined based on management estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date, supplemented by experience of similar transactions. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimates.

A disclosure of contingent liability is made when there is :

- a possible obligation arising from a past event, the existence of which will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not within the control of the Company; or
- a present obligation arising from a past event which is not recognised as it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.

When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Contingent Assets, if any, are not recognised in the financial statements since this may result in the recognition of income that may never be realized.

1.11 Onerous contracts

Provisions for onerous contracts are recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable costs of meeting the future obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract. Before a provision is established, the Company recognises any impairment loss on the assets associated with that contract.

1.12 Impairment of assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. Impairment loss, if any, is provided in the Statement of Profit and Loss to the extent the carrying amount of assets exceeds their estimated recoverable amount.

1.13 Operating Cycle

Based on the nature of activities of the Company and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

ANNEXURE "A" TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' of our report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended 31st March, 2017, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of TATA INVESTMENT CORPORATION LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiary company and its associate companies, which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding company, its subsidiary company and its associate companies, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors of the subsidiary company and associate companies, which are companies incorporated in India, in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Holding Company, its subsidiary Company and its associates companies which are incorporated in India.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below the Holding company, its subsidiary company and its associate companies, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note.

Other Matters

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting insofar as it relates to one subsidiary company and two associate companies, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such companies incorporated in India, which have been furnished to us by the Management.

Our report is not modified in respect of the above matters.

The financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those followed in the previous year.

The Management believes that the estimates used in the preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. The differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialise.

c. Principles of Consolidation

The Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company have been prepared on the following basis :

- i. The financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary company have been combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. An Associate is an enterprise in which the Company has significant influence and which is neither a Subsidiary nor a Joint Venture of the Company
- iii. The excess of cost to the Company of its investments in the subsidiary company over its share of equity of the Subsidiary company at the dates on which the investments in the Subsidiary company are made, is recognised as 'Goodwill' being an asset in the Consolidated Financial statements.
- iv. Minority Interest in the net assets of consolidated subsidiary is identified and presented in the Consolidated Financial Statements separately from liabilities and equity of the Company's shareholders.
- v. Minority Interest in the net assets of consolidated subsidiaries consists of the amount of equity attributable to minority at the dates on which investments in the Subsidiary are made by the Company and further movements in their share in the equity, subsequent to the dates of investments as stated above.
- vi. The Financial Statements of the Subsidiary and Associates used in the consolidation are drawn up to the same reporting date as that of the Company i.e. 31st March 2017.

Depreciation on following tangible fixed assets has been provided on the straight-line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect of the furniture and fixtures, in which case the life of the assets has been assessed taking into account the nature of the assets, the estimated usage of the asset on the basis of the management best estimation of getting economic benefits from such assets. Further, Assets individually costing ₹ 5000/- or less are fully depreciated in the year of purchase.

	Useful life in years

1.3 Revenue recognition

- a) Income from dividend is accounted when such dividend has been declared and the Company's right to receive payment is established.
- b) Interest income is recognised on a time proportionate basis, taking into account the amount outstanding and the coupon rate applicable. Income from debentures and bonds is accrued over the maturity of the security, net of amortisation of premium / discount, where intended to be held for a long term, with reference to the coupon dates.
- c) In accordance with Guidance Note on "Accounting for Equity Index and Equity Stock Futures and Options" issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Equity Index / Stock Futures

1. Equity Index / Stock Futures are marked-to-market on a daily basis. Debit or credit balances, if any, are disclosed under Loans and Advances or Current Liabilities respectively. The "Mark-to-Market Margin Equity Index / Stock Futures Account", represents the net amount paid or received on the basis of movement in the prices of Equity Index / Stock Futures till the Balance Sheet date.
2. As at the Balance Sheet date, the profit / loss on open positions, if any, in Equity Index / Stock Futures are accounted for as follows : Credit balance in the "Mark-to-Market Margin - Equity Index / Stock Futures Account", being anticipated profit, is ignored and no credit is taken in the Statement of Profit and Loss.- Debit balance in the "Mark-to-Market Margin - Equity Index / Stock Futures Account", being anticipated loss, is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss."
3. On final settlement or squaring-up of contracts for Equity Index / Stock Futures, the profit or loss is calculated as the difference between settlement / squaring-up price and contract price. Accordingly, debit or credit balance pertaining to the settled / squared-up contract in "Mark-to-Market Margin - Equity Index / Stock Futures Account" is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss upon expiry of the contracts. When more than one contract in respect of the relevant series of Equity Index / Stock Futures contract to which the squared-up contract pertains is outstanding at the time of the squaring up of the contract, the contract price of the contract so squared up is determined using First In First Out Method for calculating profit / loss on squaring-up.
4. "Initial Margin - Equity Index / Stock Futures Account", representing the initial margin and "F&O Margin Money Deposit" representing additional margin paid over and above the initial margin, for entering into contracts for Equity Index / Stock Futures, which are released on final settlement / squaring-up of underlying contracts, are disclosed under Loans and Advances.

In accordance with Guidance Note on "Accounting for Equity Index and Equity Stock Futures and Options" issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Equity Index / Stock Options

1. Equity Index / Stock Option Premium Account represents the premium paid for buying or selling the options, respectively.
2. As at the Balance Sheet date, in the case of long positions, provision is made for the amount by which the premium paid for those options exceeds the premium prevailing on the balance sheet date, and in the case of short positions, for the amount by which the premium prevailing on the balance sheet date exceeds the premium received for those options, and is reflected in Provision for Loss on Equity Index / Stock Option Account.
3. When the option contracts are squared-up before the expiry of the options, the premium prevailing on that date is recognized in the profited loss account. If more than one option contract in respect of the same index / stock with the same strike price and expiry date to which the squared-up contract pertains is outstanding at time of squaring-up of the contract, the weighted average method is followed for determining the profit or loss.
4. On the expiry of the contracts and on exercising the options, the difference between the final settlement price and the strike price is transferred to the profit & loss account.
5. In both the above cases, the premium paid or received from buying or selling the option, as the case may be, is recognized in the profited loss account for all squared-up / settled contracts.
6. "Initial Margin - Equity Index / Stock Futures Account", representing the initial margin and "F&O Margin Money Deposit" representing additional margin paid over and above the initial margin, for entering into contracts for Equity Index / Stock Option, which are released on final settlement / squaring-up of underlying contracts, are disclosed under Loans and Advances.

1.4 Employee benefits

- a) Short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense at the undiscounted amount in the Statement of Profit and Loss of the period in which the related service is rendered.
- b) Contributions under Defined Contribution Plans i.e. provident fund & superannuation fund are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which the employee has rendered the service.
- c) Company's liability towards Defined Benefit Plans / Long term compensated absences is determined by an independent actuary using the projected unit credit method. Past service cost is recognised on a straight line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. Actuarial gains and losses are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss as income or expense. Obligation is measured at the present value of estimated future cash flows using a discount rate that is determined by reference to the market yields at the Balance Sheet date on Government Bonds where the currency and terms of the Government Bonds are consistent with the currency and estimated terms of the defined benefit obligation.

1.5 Investments

- a) Long Term investments are accounted for and valued as per Accounting Standard (AS) 13 - 'Accounting for Investments' are stated at average cost except where there is a diminution other than temporary, for which provision is made.
- b) Current investments are accounted for and valued as per Accounting Standard (AS) 13 - 'Accounting for Investments' and in accordance with the RBI guidelines, are stated at the lower of cost and fair value, by category of investments.
- c) The difference between the holding cost and the face value of the Government securities / Bonds / Debentures is written off / up proportionately over the remaining life of the concerned investment or, till the call option date in case of perpetual debentures.
- d) Inter-class transfer of investments from one category to the other, if any, is done in accordance with the RBI guidelines at the lower of book value and fair value / market value on the date of transfer.

1.6 Taxes on income

Income tax expense comprises current tax and deferred tax charge or credit. The current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of the estimated taxable income for the period. The deferred tax charge or credit is recognised using prevailing enacted or substantively enacted tax rates. Where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence of realisation of such assets. Other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is a reasonable certainty of realisation in future. Deferred tax assets / liabilities are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date, based on developments during the year and available case laws to reassess realisation / liabilities.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company.

1.7 Cash and cash equivalents (for purposes of Cash Flow Statement)

Cash comprises cash on hand and demand deposits with banks. Cash equivalents are short-term balances (with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

1.8 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

1.9 Accounting for provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

In accordance with AS-29, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets, the Company recognises provisions when it has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and when a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made.

Provisions are determined based on management estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date, supplemented by experience of similar transactions. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimates.

A disclosure of contingent liability is made when there is :

- a possible obligation arising from a past event, the existence of which will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not within the control of the Company; or
- a present obligation arising from a past event which is not recognised as it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.

When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Contingent Assets, if any, are not recognised in the financial statements since this may result in the recognition of income that may never be realized.

1.10 Onerous contracts

Provisions for onerous contracts are recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable costs of meeting the future obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract. Before a provision is established, the Company recognises any impairment loss on the assets associated with that contract.

1.11 Impairment of assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. Impairment loss, if any, is provided in the Statement of Profit and Loss to the extent the carrying amount of assets exceeds their estimated recoverable amount.

1.12 Operating Cycle

Based on the nature of activities of the Company and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

1.13 Goodwill on Consolidation
